Night School Courses Again If Warranted

OFFER FOUR COURSES IF PREREGISTRATION WARRANTS FORMATION

Night school courses in four of the studies most popular in the M-S-A Area during the past seasons will be offered if pre-registration warrants formation of the classes. E. W. Burton, principal of Philip Sheffield high school and supervisor of night schools, announces. The courses offered are: woodworking, sewing, typing and singing. All persons interested in these subjects as night school studies should contact Mr. Burton, personally, by telephone or letter.

Excellent facilities and equipment are available at the Philip Sheffield high school for the courses requiring machines and tools. However, women in Matsqui prairie district who, because of wartime transportation difficulties, might be interested in sewing held in Matsqui village, should leave their names with Mrs. J. W. Westlin.

Classes will not be started if the preregistration does not indicate they are warranted, but if it does, Mr. Burton states, the classes will be established immediately in the subjects in which sufficient interest is demonstrated. A minimum enrolment of 14 or 15 persons is required for a class.

ANTICIPATE HIGHER QUOTAS; MEETING HELD IN BASEMENT

Representatives of the committees of volunteer workers met with the official organizers Monday night to make preliminary arrangements in Unit 19 for the Third Victory Loan which will be offered for public investment on October 19. Unit and sub-unit quotas have not yet been announced, but in view of the increased Dominion quota a proportionate advance is anticipated.

Unit 19 comprises three sub-units, Matsqui-Sumas-Abbotsford Area, Mission-Dewdney-Nicomen Area and Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows Area, and is a part of the Fraser Valley Division in the B.C. campaign. Reeve W. J. Park of Pitt Meadows, Unit Chairman; Rev. A. J. Loughton, of Abbotsford, vice-chairman; and Division Organizer J. L. Mackee of New Westminster were the principals at Monday night's meeting in Mission. Also present were sub-unit vice-chairmen M. M. Shore, M-S-A Area; F. C. Lightbody of Mission-Dewdney, and Lyall Nash of Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows; and Employees Committee chairman J. L. Brown of Haney.

Caught in Blackout

Introduced were Unit Organizer Don Clark and Asst. Org. C. E. Barnhart and Mrs. D. J. Sewell of Mission, secretary. Unit Headquarters are again in Mission. Caught in the blackout while en route to the meeting were Reeve James Simpson of Matsqui and Reeve Alex Houghton of Sumas, and Lang. Sands, public relations chairman, Abbotsford. Reeve Houghton got as far as Abbotsford and Reeve Simpson and Lang. Sands barely got over the Mission bridge. The latter two men footed it into Mission but failed to locate the meeting which had adjourned to a basement shelter where it was possible to have lights without blackout problems.

A meeting to organize the M-S-A sub-unit for the Victory Loan will probably be held early next week. Reeve Alex Houghton is chairman with Reeve James Simpson and "Mayor" M. M. Shore as vice-chairmen.

Announcement today by Geo. Kidd, chairman of the B.C. National War Finance Committee, that the provincial quota is to be $75,000,000 indicates a substantial increase in sub-quotas. Last year Unit 19 was upped $100,000 to $375,000 which, pro rata, moved the M-S-A sub-unit objective up $20,000 to $95,000, but the response was so good that $107,000 was topped.

Of the total, "special" subscriptions from large concerns are expected to reach approximately $31,000,000.

Subscriptions received in the east from large organizations with branches in this province are estimated at $15,000,000.

The remaining $29,000,000 must be raised by the sale of Victory bonds to the general public.

Public Has Money

Mr. Kidd pointed out that payrolls and profits in B.C. are now the highest on record. Bank deposits are similarly increased, and the chairman drew attention to the sacrifices which have been made by the empire's allies, particularly Russia. "I am confident," he said, "that we shall not fail them now in their desperate need."

Announcement was made a few days ago that Canada is expected to raise $750,000,000 in the coming bond sale.

Poor Announcement System Chief Grouse Over Blackout

LACK OF ARP SIRENS AND RADIO WARNINGS LEFT MANY PEOPLE AS INNOCENT OFFENDERS

Chief grouse of the public in the M-S-A Area on Tuesday morning following Monday night's surprise blackout, was the lack of adequate warning. With the Area still without the two official sirens allotted to spread an air raid alarm over its 200 square miles of territory and the Coast radios failing to announce that a general blackout was in effect, there were many families that were still unaware of the alarm until they heard it discussed the next day. Inadequate announcement system also increased the problems of the ARP wardens and the police.

Cement Walks And Iron Pipe Water Mains

ABBOTSFORD TOWN COUNCIL SWITCHES IMPROVEMENT PLANS

Further waterworks and sidewalk improvements will take place in Abbotsford as a result of the street improvement program being blocked by the government "freeze" on asphalt paving material.

Already a new dam has been constructed on the eastern boundary of the village where about one-third of the town's supply of water is obtained from springs. This work has permitted direct pumping from the source to the storage tank on the hilltop, eliminating a secondary pump previously required.

It is proposed to link the fire hydrant at the northwest corner of Essendene avenue and North Railway avenue, Modern Markets Ltd., to the new main a block north on Hazel street with a six-inch iron pipe. This will permit two lines of 2½-inch hose to be operated from the hydrant in case of fire. At present the hydrant is served by a 2-inch main. If funds permit a similar connection will be made to the hydrant a block west at the Royal Bank corner.

Old wooden mains are giving considerable trouble now, Chairman M. M. Shore states, many leaks occurring now. With this problem in mind, it is planned to replace the main on Pine street between the Masonic hall (Continued on Page Eight)

There were no indications that the great majority of citizens in the town, country and on the roads were not willing to cooperate. There was plenty of adverse comment on confusion in the Fraser Valley and apparently at the Coast, to judge by the radio programs, over the inadequate notice and also the conflict in interpretation of regulations by wardens and police. Motorists were particularly bitter over the latter confusion. Other "grouses" concerned the failure of the ARP authorities to adequately announce the end of the three-hour blackout, the lack of co-ordination with American authorities which left Washington border communities a blaze of light and neighboring B.C. districts in darkness and the failure of ARP authorities to have radio telephone or other contact with railway passenger trains which cut through the almost-dark Fraser Valley with brilliant and fully-lit coaches. B. C.E.R. trains did manage to don blackout lights fairly quickly, it was observed.

Belated Warning

Chief Warden Percy Jones expressed himself as reasonably satisfied with the M-S-A blackout effort under existing conditions. Matsqui village, with one of the siren installations standing empty atop the new school, apparently did not get the warning for nearly an hour as motorists from Mission found street lights and other lights blazing and warned citizens of the blackout. Principal warning in Sumas was apparently the DeLair plant whistle and the siren on B.C. Constable MacBrayne's police car. There were many in Abbotsford who did not hear the fire siren, the temporary warning device, and in western Matsqui citizens were quite surprised next morning on visiting Abbotsford to hear there had been a blackout.

Lone casualty reported in the Area was Harvey Henderson of Abbotsford who politely stepped aside to let someone pass him on the sidewalk in Abbotsford, and found he had stepped into a spot occupied by a telephone pole. He sustained cuts on the forehead and chin and a bruised knee.

Motorists Delayed

Motorists found that the official "slit" headlights for use in other than imminent danger blackouts, provided a surprising amount of driving light at the reduced speed limit. Many were caught without their equipment however, and were forced to idle at the roadside for hours. A few took a chance of running foul of the law, injuring themselves and others or wrecking their cars by attempting to travel without any lights.

Tighten Up Your Belts

Apparently the farm labor situation has caught the United States government napping just as soundly as it has the Canadian government. We have frequently observed during the past year that a critical situation is brewing on the farm production front and that both consumers and government should commence to worry about it. Across "the line" our esteemed contemporary, The Lynden Tribune, editorializes briefly and bluntly on the same factors that have long been apparent here. And it does so in a 28-page "Harvest for Victory" edition which declares "Whatcom County—Leading the Nation in Victory Food Production."

Caption of The Tribune editorial, reproduced below, is the one we have used and, if you substitute Prime Minister King where The Tribune refers to President Roosevelt, the Washington weekly's editorial exactly fits the situation here.

The Tribune's editorial follows:

Consumers who have noticed all the sale bills The Tribune has been running, are getting ready to tighten up their belts. Most of the farmers selling out give as a reason their inability to get labor to help them handle their farms.

Flocks are being sold. Herds are being sold. Fertile acres are destined to lie fallow. Farmers can't keep hands that can get three times the pay at any war munitions plant.

President Roosevelt oughtn't to be worrying about holding farm prices at their present levels. With all the boys drafted and all the older laborers sucked off to the city, he and his executives ought to be stirring around to figure out a way to get someone to raise the foods—at any price.

Those Savings Stamps

A visitor to The News office the other day remarked, "I don't kid myself that I am being patriotic when I buy War Savings Certificates, and I buy them just as often as I can." Naturally, we asked him why he bought War Savings if not to help the War Effort. The reply was brief and to the point: "I buy them because they are the best investment within my means. If it helps the War Effort, so much the better."

What interests our visitor in War Savings Certificates are the following facts regarding them: they are available in convenient amounts, $1 for $5 value, $8 for $10, $20 for $25; they bear interest at three per cent, are tax free, redeemable and registered. There are, however, a couple of other angles apart from patriotism that we should keep in mind about War Savings. There is a "rainy day" angle in which connection The Vancouver News-Herald comments:

"There never was a time when it was more in the public interest to buy Canadian War Savings Stamps than right now. There never was a time when it was more in the individual's interest to do so. This war will not last forever. When it comes to an end those families which have done their patriotic duty by buying War Savings Stamps will be the ones in the best position to weather any storm which might occur."

The same Vancouver newspaper also has some timely remarks on the present more convenient but somewhat unappreciated opportunities to purchase War Savings Stamps through retail stores. The News-Herald says:

The various merchants who are now co-operating by asking the public to take some change in War Stamps are rendering an important public service. The salesclerks who do likewise are performing a public duty just as necessary under present circumstances as anything heroic done by men in uniform. Neither the merchants nor the clerks get any benefit from the transaction, direct or indirect. On the contrary, it would be to the selfish interests both of the merchants and clerks to urge extra purchases and not sales of government stamps.

The News-Herald does not believe that the present system of public finance is the best possible system; but rather there could be a far better plan applied on the compulsory principle. But meanwhile, the newspaper contends, it is the duty of every citizen, however rich or poor, to do everything within his or her power to co-operate in making the present system a success.

Don't Fool Yourself

(Maclean's Magazine)

F. C. Badgley, executive assistant to the national ARP director, told the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs that one of the problems facing the Government is that of overcoming an attitude on the part of the public of "amused condescension toward ARP work."

Fire Chief Defields of Windsor criticized public apathy and added that of 1,200 registered auxiliary firemen in his city, less than fifty per cent have had sufficient training to be of any use should an emergency arise.

In other parts of the country, ARP chief wardens complain of the difficulty of maintaining the interest of those who have taken basic training in air raid precaution work.

Apathy or condescension toward air raid precautions work is not only foolish, it's dangerous. And backsliding on the part of any who have signed up for service is reprehensible and dangerous.

Anyone who doubts that this country can be subjected to air raids knows nothing of the range of the modern bomber, of globular geography, or of enemy dispositions.

MAN'S SEVEN MISTAKES

(Canadian Business)

A recent writer enumerates what he considers to be the seven greatest mistakes of man, as follows:

1. The delusion that individual advancement is made by crushing others down. 2—The tendency to worry about things that cannot be changed. 3—Insisting that a thing is impossible because we ourselves cannot accomplish it. 4—Refusing to set aside trivial preferences in order that important things may be accomplished. 5—Neglecting development and refinement of the mind by not acquiring the habit of reading. 6—Attempting to compel other persons to believe and live as we do. 7—The failure to establish the habit of saving money.

Vicar's Lesson

An English vicar, writing to his people a year ago, among other things, said the following:

We have been a pleasure-loving people, dishonoring God's Day. Now the sea shores are barred. No picnicking or bathing.

We have preferred motor travel to church going. Now there is a shortage of motor fuel.

We have ignored the ringing of church bells calling us to worship. Now the bells cannot ring except to warn of invasion.

We have left the churches empty. Now they are in ruins.

We would not listen to the way of peace. Now we are forced to listen to the way of war.

The money we would not give to the Lord's work now is taken in taxes and higher prices.

The food for which we neglected to thank God is now unobtainable.

The service we refused to give to God is conscripted for the country.

Lives we refused to live under God's control now are under the nation's control.

Nights we would not spend "watching unto prayer" now we spend in anxious air raid precautions.

With intensified speed Canada goes full-out on the war.

DEMOCRACY ENCOURAGES PROGRESS AND SALVATION SAYS CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Lecturer Tells of 'Science Views Warring Democracy

Following is part of a lecture on Christian Science entitled Christian Science: The Discovery of Life Eternal, by Paul Stark member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., delivered Sunday in Sumas, Wn.

What light does the Science of Life eternal throw on the world situation of today? War, judged from the standpoint of spiritual Science, is dense ignorance, barbarism. From the standpoint of present day human thinking, it is sometimes the only way that mortals—not yet fully understanding the omnipotence of supreme Mind—can ward off those evil forces that would if unresisted, turn back the progressive appearing of the true idea of God and His son, man, in the thinking of men. Mrs. Eddy abhorred war, but she did not become lost in metaphysical abstractions, which human thought has not yet proved its ability to demonstrate. At the time of the Spanish-American war she wrote words which may have a present day meaning when she said, "Great occasions have we to rejoice that our nation... will be as formidable in war as she has been compassionate in peace" (Christian Science versus Pantheism, pp. 14, 15).

A vital quality of democracy is that it encourages the processes of progress and salvation for mankind. Democracy evidences a better concept of God in human consciousness. Democracy does not resist, endanger or combat the appearing in thought of the savior of mankind. The great improvement in human life, socially, politically, economically, that characterizes it flows naturally from its placing no form of political priesthood between man and his God.

One thing is worse than war, and that is to be faithless to our ideals, to love our human sense

FOR EXCESS SPEED THREE FINED $15

Three offenders, Louis Woo of Sardis, George G. Martens of Mt. Lehman road, Matsqui, and Edmund Augustus Richardson of Vancouver, were each fined $15 and costs in Matsqui police court on Thursday morning for exceeding 40 miles per hour on the highway. George G. Martens paid a further $5 and costs for speeding through a Matsqui school zone.

of life more than those ideals. The Master saw the conflict in human thought between the human sense of life and the spiritual ideals for which all, if necessary must be sacrificed when he said, "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it."

The distorted concept of law and government being aggressively presented to the world today would, if it could, wedge between the individual and his God a man-made state controlled by self-chosen mortals. Freedom of religious and political thought would be subject to the whim of the human will. No such concept springs from the Mind that is Love and eternal Life. Human will is "the motive power of error" (Science and Health, p. 597). The true government of man is the motivating power of the all-intelligent Mind that is God. The "new order" that awaits us is the eternal order, God's order, new to darkened material thought, but forever natural to the Mind and identities that are the work of God.

The Christian Science organization has taken an unequivocal stand for the all-out defense of the democratic ideal of government, at any cost, because it regards the issue as basic. The progress of humanity, it knows, can be served, not by running the smallest chance of having foisted upon mankind a mortal man-made autocracy, but only by keeping open the unobstructed way for the fuller appearing of God's free and theocratic government of His own.

Fresh Fruits And Vegetables Need Care In Storage Choosing

Careful selection of fruits and vegetables for winter storage will pay well in keeping quality and goodness for time and effort expended.

Only fully mature specimens, free from damage caused by insects, disease, rough handling, mechanical injuries, freezing or chilling should be chosen, advises Dominion Department of Agriculture. Freedom from dirt and moisture is necessary to prevent decay, and sorting regularly during the storage period to remove defective specimens from the storage room are essential.

To determine internal injury in such products as apples, potatoes and turnips, samples should be cut from each lot and examined. Fruits and vegetables that are not sound should not be stored.

Best way to store apples is in slatted bushel crates which allow for air circulation. Decay or infection from disease can be prevented by avoiding finger nail scratches, skin punctures and bruises caused by careless handling and dropping of fruit into baskets or bags.

Potatoes should be allowed to dry thoroughly before storing. Put in a dark portion of the room since light affects their quality. When placed in piles or in bulk they should rest on a false floor, and against the wall upon which slats have been nailed, with upright ventilators placed every few feet in the pile. Insufficient ventilation may cause breakdown, button rot or black-heart. Onions keep best in crates or shallow trays, though open mesh bags may be used. Ventilation is important since the bulbs continually give off moisture which must be removed. They should be dry and well cured before placing in storage, and no field frost, sun scald or decay in evidence. From one to two inches of stem should be attached and well shrivelled.

One method of storing cabbage is to bring the heads into the storeroom with roots attached, and place these roots in moist sand on the floor leaving about two inches of shank attached and placing on the side shelves of the storage with two tiers on each shelf. Specimens with heads that are hard and heavy are in prime condition for storage. Strip off outside wrapper leaves since these interfere with ventilation important in the storage of this vegetable. Cabbage heads should be well cooled before storing.

Cauliflower may be stored for a considerable time by lifting each plant with root attached, leaves tied up over the head, and planting close together in moist sand on the storage floor.

If boxes are used place a thin layer of sand at the bottom of each and fill with alternate layers of vegetables and sand. If piled in heaps on the floor, a covering of sand is sufficient. A booklet giving details on successful household storage of fruits and vegetables is available from the Publicity and Extension Division, Department of Agriculture.

India's total area is 1,567,000 square miles, with a population of 388,800,000. One out of every five persons in the world is an Indian.

WHICH WOULD YOU CHOOSE?

Of course you will choose the well planted place! Trees, shrubs, flowers and vines create an atmosphere of comfort, happiness and prosperity. Today, well planted grounds are the fashion.

YOU SLEPT WELL THAT NIGHT, DIDN'T YOU?BUT GEORGE WAS AT DIEPPE!

NICE fellow, George—one of the lads from the office. Remember, you had him out for dinner one night. He made a great fuss over your kids—and your wife was very pleased. And then, all of a sudden, he slipped away and joined up. Left his good job, his girl and his future. And he was at Dieppe, slogging up the beach into a murderous rain of steel—fighting for you and your wife and those kids of yours he played with. And that same night you slept well, didn't you... in a soft bed. You had an egg for breakfast too. But George didn't. And you've still got a good job and you wear good clothes.

And being conscientious, you worry about these things a bit. But you just haven't been able to push yourself into doing much more than pay your taxes. Well, those taxes aren't enough. Think of what George gave up, and then sit down with your wife and ask yourselves, "What else can we do?" Sure, you've given up a few little luxuries. But there are lots of things yet that you can cut down on. Do it gladly. Because you'll really get a kick out of investing the money you save in Victory Bonds, and in knowing you're not letting George do it all.

Just keep thinking about George and what he gave up. And remember, those Victory Bonds you buy aren't giving—they're lending your country money to help protect you. That money will come back to you with interest.

Skilled and Unskilled Men of Lower Medical Categories
Are Now Needed!

HERE IS GOOD NEWS to all men who are anxious to serve but who do not measure up to the Class "A" standards. The Active Army will now accept men who are in the lower medical categories, as well as Class "A" men, to serve in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

Men are needed to serve as nursing orderlies, laboratory assistants, operating room assistants, radiographers, and chiropodists, and masseurs. Others are needed as clerks, cooks, storemen and for general hospital work.

Experience in medical work is not necessary. But this is a particularly good opportunity for hospital workers, chiropodists, masseurs, and men holding first-aid certificates.

Men—if you have been unable to enlist because of your physical condition, then here is where you can serve! Decide to Join Now.

For Enlistment Apply to the

An executive meeting of the M-S-A Branch will be held in the work rooms on Friday afternoon, Oct. 2, at 3 p.m. Members please take note.

Appeal for Workers

The work room committee is sending out this urgent appeal for sewers and knitters. Cutters have been busy and there is considerable material ready to be sewn which is very badly needed. You do not have to be expert sewers—there are experts to supervise the work. Also knitting for seamen is being asked for and wool is on hand for distribution, please come and get it.

Donations

The branch would like take this opportunity of extending its thanks to Mr. Geo. Cruickshank, M.P. Mr. Gowing Frost and all those who contributed to make the auctions recently held in our behalf such a success. The sum of $74 was realized from the sale of the calf and $18 from auctions of two oil paintings donated by Mrs. J. Frith. Also our thanks to those who donated entries from the C.F.V. Fair, to be sold.

MATSQUI A. A. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Arleen Gustafson was elected president, Buster Cairns, vice-president, and Irene Gustafson, secretary-treasurer at the annual meeting of the Matsqui Amateur Athletic Association held in the Matsqui hall Monday evening. It was decided to assess each member a 50c fee to join the club, and to attempt to hold a dance some time in October to raise rental funds. Five girls and eight boys were present but more are expected. Basketball practice nights will be each Tuesday.

The wedding took place quietly in Seattle, Wn., last week of George Bishop and Miss Judy Rukhus of Abbotsford. They are residing in Seattle where the groom is employed in a shipyard.

The room was appropriately decorated with blue and white streamers, and the guest of honor was seated in a chair which was decorated with pink and white roses. The honored guest was presented with many beautiful gifts, among which was a lovely silver tray, the gift of the Hungarian Women's Club.

"Perfect weather—just like California," was the first comment made by F. N. Bullard of Woodland, Calif., and Fred Coble, Winters, Calif., when they visited The News on Wednesday last week in company with A. C. Stewart local sheep breeder. The visitors were in the M-S-A Area to buy sheep, planning to pick up a carload. Mr. Coble secured 80 head here last year and Mr. Bullard bought 400 in Alberta. They report that young men engaged in the sheep and dairy farming industries down their way have had to sell out in order to go in the U.S. Army. Farm help is also scarce there.

19-YEAR OLDS ARE CALLED TO ARMY SERVICE

The regulations are also extended to make liable for call men who have been divorced or judicially separated since July 15, 1940, or who have become childless widowers since that date.

'CHUTES 200 FEET

Sergeant Ben Gazell, many times holder of the Dominion backstroke title, Wrigley marathon prize-winner and former swim instructor at Toronto, had a close call when he parachuted 200 feet from a bomber into Lake Erie near Port Stanley. A member of the service police at Aylmer Flying Training school, he made the unscheduled jump when he mistook an order during the time an Avro-Anson in which he was flying was in difficulty over the lake. Completing one of the shortest parachute jumps ever made from a speeding plane—200 feet—he plunged into the cold water and immediately set about to free himself from his chute harness. Then he swam 150 yards to shore fully clothed, scaled a steep 200-foot cliff and ran a mile and a half in search of the plane he feared had crashed.

BOTH ARE LIEUTENANTS

Mrs. Madeleine Nation and her 21-year-old daughter, Barbara, of Vancouver have graduated from Ste. Anne de Bellevue training centre as second lieutenants in the Canadian Women's Army Corps.

"Queens of the Clouds" are These Weather Observers

Taking a five-week course at the Dominion meteorological office in Toronto are these airwomen, training to be meteorological observers at R.C.A.F. flying training schools throughout Canada. During the course they take lectures, learn how to read recording machines, and are taught how to take detailed observations and chart and plot weather maps.

They are: Jeanette Archibald, Kit-chener; C. Harvey, St. John's, Newfoundland; Edith J. Cape, Verwood, Sask.; G. H. Bruce, Winnipeg, and Joyce Adams, St. John's, Newfoundland, all AW2's.

FAST, NEW TYPE MINESWEEPER NOW IN R. C. N. SERVICE

A new type of minesweeper, faster and equipped with the latest of weapons is the Bangor. Manned by the courageous fighting men of the Royal Canadian Navy, ships of the Bangor class are carrying a heavy share of the battle of the United Nations against the enemy at sea. They have been particularly effective in coastal patrol and protective operations in the St. Lawrence. RCN photo.

Packing Nutrition In Canadian School Lunches

The importance of wholesome, nutritious lunches for youngsters who must take their's to school is understood by this Canadian mother. Sandwiches are made from whole wheat bread with substantial fillings, one egg and one peanut butter and honey for each lad today. Tomatoes, apple sauce, cookies and plenty of milk to drink round out a lunch of which both nutritionists and the boys approve. The top of the wall surrounding the school yard is a favorite lunch spot with these two brothers on sunny days.

MATSQUI RED CROSS
MAKES OVER $40 AT GARDEN TEA, RAFFLE

Beautiful gardens and lawns at the home of Mrs. Alex. Bates, Gifford, helped to make the Matsqui Red Cross garden tea held Thursday afternoon such a success. The sum of $41 was realized from the tea and an apron raffle, which was in charge of Miss Connie Cruickshank. Miss Shirley Springate and Mrs. A. Grohnert won aprons. Contest prizes of War Savings Stamps were won by Mrs. Oscar Houghton and Miss Kathleen Smith.

Mrs. Bates was assisted in welcoming the guests by the president, Mrs. S. F. Cameron, and by Mrs. J. Threlfall. Mrs. Joe Smith of Ridgedale and Mrs. James of Gifford presided at the tea table. During the afternoon Mrs. Walter Adams sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. R. Rottluff. There were approximately 80 guests present, among them being members of the Mt. Lehman and Ridgedale Red Cross auxiliaries who made a happy addition to the afternoon success.

WHIST DRIVE NETS
EASTERN STAR $9.75

Eight dollars and seventy-five cents was realized when eight tables of military whist were played in the Orange hall, Abbotsford, on Friday evening, under auspices of the Order of Eastern Star. "Africa" was the winning table and the players were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Switzer, Miss Wagner and Pte. Emily Webb. Consolation prizes went to "Mexico" with Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards, H. McFadyen and Mrs. Matthews as players. Refreshments were served.

MUST YIELD OLD TUBES
WHEN BUYING TOOTH PASTE

Anyone buying shaving cream or toothpaste in a collapsible tube from now on must turn in an old tube for each new one bought, according to an order from Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The order forbids any retailer to sell any preparation in a collapsible tube without surrender of a used one.

An earlier order prohibiting the destruction or throwing away of collapsible metal tubes is still in effect. Any extra tubes lying around the house should be turned in to retail drug stores in addition to the ones being exchanged.

SALVAGE OFFICE STATES
CANADIAN SCRAP NEEDS
DIFFERENT FROM U.S.A.

"Don't confuse your radio broadcasts," advises National Salvage Headquarters at Ottawa. Salvage items are frequently heard over the radio and Canadian listeners are advised to be careful in distinguishing whether the information emanates from a Canadian or United States station. While the salvage situation in the United States is in many instances similar to our own, there are others where their need for certain materials, and their methods of collection and disposal, are at variance with Canadian needs and practices. Check your station carefully.

VISCOUNT BENNETT
DESCRIBES OVERSEAS
RED CROSS WORK

So small are the sacrifices we make compared with those of the people of Britain. We should give greater contributions. This was the unanimous feeling of hundreds of Red Cross workers, expressed by Mr. George Darling, Nanaimo, in a vote of thanks to Viscount R. B. Bennett, Chairman of the Canadian Red Cross Overseas Committee, for his stirring inspirational address in Vancouver last week.

Viscount Bennett gave a graphic picture of what the Canadian Red Cross meant to Britain. "You Canadians have little appreciation of the service you are rendering," he said. "Millions of dollars in cash... hospital, civilian and refugee supplies... prisoner of war parcels, 186 ambulances, 42 mobile kitchens, food and other necessities."

He portrayed vividly a pathetic word picture of bombed homes "flattened into rubble", of people escaping only in night apparel; of children snatched from beds and cradles; of food and clothes to 'waifs and strays.' He told of comforts to the Royal Navy and Merchant Marine. "Great as is the service of the Royal Navy—greater is that of the Merchant Marine," he said. "England would have starved but for it."

NEVER REPAY RUSSIA

He told of assistance to foreign Red Cross Societies. "We'll never be able to pay our debt to Russia," he declared. "Russia diverted German military strength—millions of men, thousands of tanks and planes—such as the world has ever known, to the East. We have little conception of the suffering in Russia. There were tears in the eyes of the wife of the Russian ambassador when I gave her the $100,000 cheque from the Canadian Red Cross to buy medical supplies."

He denied the oft-repeated story that the Red Cross sells socks. "I don't deny that soldiers who have too many socks sell some, but never has the Red Cross, since it has been in existence, received a cent for supplies of any kind."

He told of the Geneva convention governing prisoners' of war parcels, which is adhered to in the main by Germany and to the letter by Britain.

He climaxed his address with a tribute to Prime Minister Churchill whom he said in his speech after "the miracle of Dunkirk" has revived the old English spirit of courage and highest devotion—that life without liberty was not to be endured. Better death than slavery. Though battered and beaten, England would struggle on. Many times he complimented B.C. on the high quality of Red Cross service and work. "You, too, like the people of England, who work seven days a week, give everything they can, are helping to build into the fabric of the Empire our conception of Christian civilization—one in which no fear or force can dominate the world."

PERMISSION NEEDED BY GAS STATIONS TO USE CANOPY LIGHTS

Service station operators who wish to turn on their electric lights under canopies now that long, dark evenings are approaching, may apply for permission to the Advisory Council,
Provincial Civilian Protection
Committee, 650 Burrard street, Vancouver. This information is forwarded to The News by Flt.-
Lt. L. H. Eyres, M.L.A., who also points out that "of course the attendant must be on hand at all times to turn off lights immediately should an alarm be sounded. No electrically-lighted signs will be allowed." Mr. Eyres forwards the information, not generally known, "as it does seem important that such a dangerous thing as gasoline should be dispensed under conditions as safe as possible to the general public."

school broadcast starting at 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 9.

have been elected and possibilities of staging the annual match
